Honourable Tony Clement, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Industry

House of Commons

Dear Minister Clement:

As Member of Parliament for Ottawa South, I am pleased to enclose correspondence from Mr. Robert Chisholm. He has serious concerns about the current methods of measuring and reporting unemployment statistics.

As you will note in the attached document, Mr. Chisholm outlines his unease regarding the terms used by Statistics Canada and has proposed an alternate system for measuring the performance of the Canadian economy.

Minister Clement, I would appreciate your comments on this matter.

Sincerely,

David McGuinty, M.P.
